Become a Friend!

Volunteers are the life-blood of Eaton County Parks.

All you need is a love of nature and enthusiasm.

Please consider joining our effort to promote a sustainable future.

Why Volunteer?

- Share your love of nature.
- Learn new skills.
- Share a special talent with others.
- Participate in meaningful activities.
- Make a difference.
- Meet like-minded people.
- Inspire others.
- Learn more about your natural world.
- Have fun!

WHO ARE WE?

The Friends of Eaton County Parks is an independent, non-profit, voluntary organization which promotes the awareness, use, enhancement, and preservation of our country parks. We do this through education, advocacy, volunteerism, and partnership with park staff, our park commission, and with local citizens and organizations that value our parks.
